Sunday Readings

- 1) Sirach 3:17-20, 28-29
- 2) Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24
- 3) Luke 14:1, 7-14

Sunday is the Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. We are encouraged to embrace humility. The first reading from the Book of Sirach says it simply: "Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God." In Luke's gospel is a beloved story of Jesus saying, "do not recline at table in the place of honor" at a banquet. "For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." MASS/CONFESSION SCHEDULES

With the changes in staffing at Cathedral, there will have to be some adjustments to the Mass and Confession schedules. The daily 5:15 Mass will not be reinstated in the fall; it will be celebrated on First Fridays only. Also confessions will be heard on Saturdays from 4 pm to 4:45 pm; when there are weddings and if no relief is available, confessions might be delayed. It will take some time to determine if any other changes will be required.

JOIN US FOR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION:

"May Mary, who in the freedom of her 'Fiat' and her presence at the foot of the cross, offered to the world, Jesus, the Liberator, help us to find him in the Sacrament of the altar," - Pope John Paul II

At this time we are in serious need of people who can help occasionally to cover Eucharistic Adoration hours. If you would be willing to be added to our list of substitute Adorers please call the number above. There is no weekly commitment to offer your help this way; you would receive calls to ask if you can help for certain hours and you can decide day by day if the time is convenient or possible for you to fill. You will be greatly rewarded by Our Lord for every minute that you spend with him in His true presence!! Perhaps this is the perfect way for you to start participating in Adoration, try it out, and experience the wonderful peace that it brings--this is a good way to start out and learn what it is all about. Please call!!

The Message: Our job isn't to change the message. Our job is to let the message change us.

A Father's Sermon: A minister's young son sat on the floor of his father's office watching him write a sermon. "How do you know what to say?" the boy asked. "Why, God tells me." his father replied. "Well, then why do you keep crossing things out?"

Call to offertory: There is a story of a minister in a small town who was having trouble with his collections. So one Sunday he announced from the pulpit: "Before we pass the collection plate, I would like to request that the person who stole the chickens from Brother Smith's henhouse please refrain from giving any money to the Lord. The Lord doesn't want money from a thief." The collection plate was passed around, and for the first time in many months, everybody put something in.

A bell is not a bell until you ring it. A song is not a song until you sing it. Life is not life until you live it. And love is not love until you give it away. So, I hope you sing boldly. I hope you dance as if no one is watching. I hope you love as if you have never been hurt. And I hope you make audacious plans, and give your talents back to God boldly.

Something to think and pray about this week:
 In the bible, poverty is an evil to be corrected; wealth is not an evil but a necessity for the well-being of the kingdom. However the love of riches can lead to neglect of God and of the poor. The Christian community has always tried to make the care of the poor its priority. Is it mine? 'What stress are you under?' Jesus asks of us. It stems from his mission. He is sent by the Father to purify, and to distinguish what is genuine from dross. Life according to the beatitudes has its share of conflict. For those who hunger and thirst for justice, this world is not a comfortable place. As Simeon prophesied to Mary, Jesus was 'destined to be a sign that is rejected.' (Luke 2:34) What about me? Do I merge seamlessly and comfortably with the values of this world? Do I hunger and thirst for anything? If the behaviour of the Beatitudes were a criminal offence, would I be in prison?

The more we call on God
 the more we can feel God's presence.
 Day by day we are drawn closer to the loving heart of God.
